Ladies AM Bible Class is each Sunday morning at 9:00 Beth Anthony teaches this class.

Ladies PM Bible Class each Sunday at 5:00. Teresa West teaches this class.

“One Church Is As Good As Another...”

Of course no New Testament Christian would say this directly. But sometimes New Testament Christians that lose their moral compass say this very thing by the things they do. Remember that it has been said many times, “Your life is the only Bible some people will ever read...” and, “As a sermon your actions are louder than the spoken word...” Teddy Roosevelt gave the following sentiment - that a man is not worth much that does not stay true to his beliefs by his actions.

Consider that a Bible class teacher or preacher is known for teaching the Biblical doctrine of the “One, true church” (Ephesians 4:4). On Sunday mornings they are present consistently. But when time arrives for Sunday evening services this same person is in attendance at the Roman Catholic Mass. Then at the appointed time for Wednesday evening Bible Study arrives this same person is at the Baptist Church just a few blocks away! Good brethren would accurately see this as being hypocritical. The words would just be empty, hollow ‘sermonizing’ as their actions betrayed their content.

“Extreme!”, you may say. What would be the difference if a New Testament Christian went to various buildings marked by the words “Church of Christ” in the same routine as above but one was sound in doctrine and practice; one was teaching and practicing any and all opinions on ‘Marriage - Divorce - Re-marriage’; and one was a ‘Non- Institutional’ that believed in helping ‘Saints only’?

James 2:10 teaches there is no difference. Erroneous doctrine is damnable whether in whole or in part. We all ‘know’ that there are different churches because they have different doctrines. Whether it be Baptist doctrine or Non-Institutionalism really makes no difference. It is “will worship” and God is not glorified by it (Colossians 2:13-23).

YOUTH

What Have Your Hands Found?

Isn't it good to see our young people at work in the church services? It is a mark of good judgment and maturity to see them present and ready to serve in their various capacities. They are to be commended when their hands are busy serving the Lord at their appointed times.

Some young hands find interest in playing ball, playing video games and attending to things that are not very pleasing to God. A parent's guidance is necessary to fill young hands with proper interests. There are a lot of things to do that are frivolous and some that are just wrong. Young people need good parents often into young adulthood and sometimes beyond.

Now, imagine a young person that has committed one's self to serving the Lord. But at the time of service he is nowhere to be found. The work that was assigned either goes undone or has to be assigned to another. It is really not fair to another to make a late assignment because he is made anxious not having prepared. But it is better than the assignment being missed and the congregation faltering in worship. Ecclesiastes 9:10 teaches that when you have committed to a work: that you prepare; be present and ready to do your best. You have put forth your best effort. When you are always present and prepared your commitment can be seen and appreciated.

Of course, everyone gets sick or has a problem that makes one late or absent and that is understood. But let us guard ourselves that we do not take lightly our commitment or our service to God. Parents, help our young ones to be in attendance and prepared to work. They will thank you for it later in life. We thank you for it now.

The Works of our Congregation Pray, Give, Send Cards, Encourage

There are times when no one will stand next to a faithful Gospel preacher (2 Tim.4:16-17). There are times when sound Christian workers feel like no one is standing with them. Help our works be successful.
